PRESTIGE GONE, ANARCHY REIGNSShuster Gives Net Results of British and Russian Action in Persia.

Vienna, January 21.—The net result of the British and Russian action in Persia renders a nation which was making progress toward peace and order and was building up its finances for the establishment of a constitutional government, a land of chaos and anarchy, without prestige among its own people, and, in addition, has meant the sacrifice of hundreds of innocent lives.

This statement was made by W. Morgan Shuster, the American, who was dismissed as Treasurer-General of Persia recently and has just arrived here.
"The Mohammedan people," he continued, "are further aroused against the Christian nations. Great Britain and Russia, for their part, being on a solid basis of friendship, are now facing on opposite sides of a disorganized territory."

"The Russian and British legations are the real governing forces in Persia. They are acting through a directory of seven Persians, in order to avoid international responsibility, but morally they are responsible for the destruction of Persian nationality, when it gave promise of establishing a stable constitutional government. The seven who are nominally governing Persia are without chance of representation. They do not command the slightest respect of their countrymen, and would not exist a day without the protection of the Russian and British le-gations."

MASS OF EVIDENCE HAS BEEN OFFEREDGovernment Feels That It Has Made Strong Case Against Packers.

Chicago, January 21.—United States District Attorney Wilkerson declares that the government, in the first six weeks of the trial, has made substantial progress in the offering of evidence in support of its charge that the Chicago packers maintained a combination in restraint of trade.
The government, he claimed, has presented a mass of evidence, seventeen volumes of testimony, and 120 documents of various kinds bearing on the business methods of the
